

Settle Memorial UMC

Sunday School

Contact us

PO Box 1756, Owensboro, KY 42302

(270)684-4226

Email alecia.settleumc@gmail.com for more information.

Sunday School
Classes meet from 9:00 –
10:00 AM each
Sunday

Good News Class

This class meets in room 103 of the Renewal and Outreach Center (ROC). Studying the Adult Bible Study by Cokesbury, this class is home to older adult singles and couples. This class helps with St. Benedict's and the HELP Office.

New Vision Class

The New Visio Class meets in room 104 of the ROC. Led by Rev. Jim Keegan, The class members range in age from 20s - 70s. The class focuses on traditional Bible study. The New Vision Class votes each month on where to give their collected donations.

Open Door Class

The Open Door Class is the longest standing class at Settle!

This all-men's class has members that range in age from 60-100. They use the Cokesbury Adult Bible Study series. They meet in room 106 of the ROC. These men regularly give of their time, service, and money to various missions.

Seekers Class

The Seekers Class is a multi-age class, ranging from 20s - 80s, singles, widows, and couples. This class typically uses book studies, such as Max Lucado. The class is prayer centered and enjoys social gatherings. They sponsor a child and prepare meals for St. Benedict's each month. They meet in room 101 of the Education Building.

Settle Lites Class

The Settle Lites Class meets in room 101 of the ROC. This class welcomes visitors and new members to their Bible-based with contemporary applications class. They support multiple local, national, and international mission projects.

Young Adults Class

The Young Adults Class meets in room 107 of the ROC. This group of 20s - 30s is a new ministry at our church and welcomes anyone who needs a place to belong. They enjoy social gatherings and supporting each other in daily life.